KOŠICE //

Sustainable and Inclusive City

City which creates its future together with and for its citizens

City that uses creativity to embrace the change

City which empowers people and new ideas

A person in a red shirt and dark pants is standing on a metal scaffolding structure, painting a large red geometric pattern on a corrugated metal ceiling. The room has red walls and a floor covered with a white plastic sheet. There are paint buckets and other tools on the floor. The text is overlaid on a dark semi-transparent rectangle in the center of the image.

New European Bauhaus could bring design, creativity and arts to the places, where they can paint the new and fresh ideas on the walls of the future for the European Cities
